Daniel Previl:

Hello - hope you're doing well!

Enclosed is the revised version. The last version was just a test to see how loudly you could scream. ☺ The "what it is," hasn't been changed only the "how it is said," as your instructions.

The pages don't include the "filing date," because I wasn't sure of which filing date and they don't include the "serial number," because I wasn't sure about that either, unless it's the "Application/Control Number," which was included.

If you want any or all of the text and or graphics on a diskette, CD or emailed, please let me know.

Thank you - have a great day!

Sincerely:

Curt
